

BOYS CHOIR
OF SPRINGFIELD

MEDIA PERMISSION AND RELEASE

I hereby grant permission to Boys Choir of Springfield (BCS), its executive board and officers, and any agent or employee thereof to photograph, film, videotape, or make audio recordings of my child, to publish statements of my child or to use such photographs, films, videotapes, audio recordings, or statements in any educational and promotional/advertising materials.

I understand that my child may be identified by name in any photographs, news stories, or publications that BCS considers appropriate for release to magazines, newspapers, internet addresses or accounts owned or managed by BCS, or other publications.

I understand that any material described above is the sole property of BCS and that neither my child nor I are entitled to any consideration or compensation for or rights to these materials.

For the purpose of this grant of permission and release from liability, the phrase "my child" is defined as any member of a BCS ensemble over whom I have parental or legal authority, custody, or guardianship.

I forever and fully release BCS, its executive board and officers, and its agents and employees from any and all liability with respect to collection, use, or dissemination of the materials described above.
